The Literacy Council of Carroll County is a non-profit organization providing adult education learning. We offer one-on-one training both in person and virtually. We teach a full range of subjects to individuals from beginning learners to college students. A few of the areas that we provide training include Pre-GED studies as well as assistance to those in GED training who require extra assistance, English as a Second Language (ESOL), citizenship, various work programs and studies needed to gain employment or be promoted, basic reading and comprehension, math, and numerous other programs. ALL CLASSES ARE OFFERED FREE OF CHARGE AND AT TIMES BEST SUITED FOR THE STUDENT.
