

William "Bill" Boyd Hoppert

January 08, 1943 - December 02, 2021

Corriganville, MD – William "Bill" Boyd Hoppert, 78, of Corriganville, MD, passed away Thursday, December 2, 2021, at UPMC-Western Maryland.

Bill was born on January 8, 1943, to Carl and Phyllis (Custer) Hoppert, in Central City, PA. He graduated from Massanutten Military Academy, Woodstock VA, in 1961, and married Judith G. Hoppert (Alter) on November 14, 1965, at Saint John's United Church of Christ, Corriganville. He worked at the A&P grocery store in LaVale, where he met his wife, the Blue Ribbon Bakery, and retired after a lengthy career at Rental Uniform Service (which is currently Cintas) as a driver, then moving into management as the plant supervisor.

Bill enjoyed owning classic cars, going to car shows and going to breakfast at Kline's Restaurant on Saturday mornings with his Saturday morning breakfast crew. He was a member of the Mason Dixon Lions Club and The Classy Chassis Car Club, Mt. Savage.

Bill is survived by his wife of 56 years: Judy; his daughter: Cindy O'Neal and husband; Rob; his sons: Brian Hoppert and wife, Robyn; and Chris "Whitey" Hoppert and wife, Amy; and his grandchildren: Haley Bruck, Meghan O'Neal, Taylor Conroy, Chad O'Neal, Ethan Hoppert and Autumn Hoppert.

He is also survived by his sister: Charlotte Miller; his brother: Fred Hoppert and wife, Phyllis; and his sister-in-law: Helen Hoppert. He was preceded in death by his parents, Carl and Phyllis, brothers Bob and Jay Hoppert.

There will be no visitation; however, a Celebration of Life is being planned for the near future.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Mason Dixon Lions Club, Mount Savage, in Bills honor.
